Pieces for Quartet" Played at Acolian Hall.

NEXT DANCE JANUARY 14 REAL HUMOR IS SHOWN

The Flonzaley Quartet gave the first right for the first for this season of the junior Assemblies, which was held as customary at Sherry's. It was much like a dinner dance, as the majority of the subscribers to this series of dances gave dinners in advance.

The Flonzaiev Quartet gave the first concert of its present season at Aeolian Hall last evening. The programme comprised Cesar Franck's quartet in D major, Haydn's in D minor, opus 76, No. 2, and Igor Stravinsky's "Three Pieces for Quartet," which are brand new, having been written last spring and not yet published. The componer entrusted the and dinners in advance.

Among the subscribers for this season are Mmes. Ernest R. Adee, William H. Porter, Henry M. Alexander, F. McNeil Bacon, Howard Nott Potter, James Byrne, Samuel Riker, Frederic Foster Carey, Harry Sedgwick, Gilbert Colgate, Charles H. Simmons, Waldron Williams.

These three pieces are very short, or These three pieces are very short, oc-cupying not more than eight minutes in performance. The first movement lasts about one minute. It was made known from the stage that although the com-poser desired that his composition, his first attempt at a quartet, be accepted as pure music, he nevertheless had in mind certain pictures. Convention Agrees to Refuse Aid to Reforms or Charity Until Vote Is Won.

MRS, CATT HEADS PARTY

No organization, reform or social or philanthropic, is to have any help from suffragists until the vote is won. At the suffragists until the vote is won. At the reorganization convention of the New York State Suffrage Association at the Hotel Astor yesterday it was decided to have cards printed which suffragists will mail in reply to requests for support. The cards will read:

On account of the deferred en-franchisement of women I am obliged to refuse your request. I ask you to help us to win the vote that we may the sooner help you.

At the morning session behind closed foors a name was selected for the new doors a name was selected for the new organization that is to take up the fight for the referendum. It is "New York State Woman Suffrage Party." At a caucus later a slate to be voted on tomorrow was picked. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, chairman of the Empire State campaign committee, is to be head, and Mrs. Raymond Brown, president of the New York State Woman Suffrage Association: Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse. New York State Woman Suffrage Asso-clation; Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse, chairman of the press and publicity council, and Mrs. Martha Wentworth Suffren, vice-chairman of the Woman Suffrage Party, are among the proposed vice-chairmen. Mrs. Brown urged that the board be composed of women living near headquarters, and this will be the rule. Up-State, however, will be repre-sented by four directors.

The feature of the open session in the afternoon was a speech by Mrs. Cutt full of stirring phrases. "Put the bric-a-brac out of your minds and lives. Make up your minds to make history. If you are a suffragist you must be a worker. We want no suffragists whose service consists in spatting with neat white gloved hands at meetings when something is said that pleases them. Roll up your sleeves for what is going to be the greatest bloodless struggle the world has ever known.
